Plan a home treasure hunt. Hide some treasure and then write out 10 clues that lead a person around the house. The clues must be visible for people to find and read.	Create your own workout. To help you with this, you could watch Joe Wicks or you can find Miss Slater's workout on Google Classroom under the assignment.	Watch a Newsround story with an adult and discuss the stories.  You could quiz your adult by thinking of some questions about what they have listened to.	Make a junk model. Use as many pieces from your recycling as you can. Get creative! You could make it trickier, by designing it with moving parts.

Use the internet to find out at least three facts about a famous athlete.  Try to find out their nationality, age, sport and what is involved in being an athlete at a high level.	Birdwatch. Take a look out of your window and see if you can see any birds. Try and identify these birds and write down the names. Over time, create a tally chart of how many times you see different birds. Which bird is the most common where you live? Make a sketch of your favourite birds.	NON - FICTION:  Be the teacher! Find three new facts about a topic of personal interest. Share these with an adult. Did they know the facts that you shared with them?	Try doing some chores around the house to help the adults you live with. For example, you could hang up a washing, set the dinner table or perhaps clean the toilet!  I'm sure your efforts will be appreciated!
Literacy:	Numeracy:	Responsible:	Numeracy:
Choose your favourite author and write a short paragraph explaining why they are your favourite. Miss Slater's favourite children's author is David Walliams.	Practise your times tables - can you create a fun game to help you learn them?	Try a new food for dinner. You could have a look for a new recipe for your whole family to try.  Take a look on allrecipes.co.uk	Find three containers in your house that would hold 1 litre. It may mean adding two together.  e.g. 300 ml can and a 700ml jug.
